Mutoh America, Inc. Grows Training Programs in 2017 expanding hands-on trainings for dealers and end users

January, 2017 – PHOENIX – Mutoh America, Inc. will begin its new and expanded line of dealer and end user training courses in January. The ever growing and diverse product line that Mutoh now offers requires its current training programs to adapt, diversify and expand to fit the needs of all Mutoh printer distributors and users. With over 50 classes throughout the year, Mutoh will double the amount of classes it has offered in previous years.

END USER TRAININGS

Avery Dennison Digital Film Wrap Training: covers a wide variety of applications including walls, floors, windows and full print car wraps with a goal to create well-rounded installers who can apply commercial graphics with confidence and quality.

FlexiLIVE: learn both the basic and advanced features of Flexi RIP software focusing on design techniques, time saving tips and tricks, color matching, enhancing low resolution artwork, printing and cutting.

Color Management Secrets: hands-on one day training that will teach you how to match monitor colors with printer output, simple color management processes, match spot colors and more.

Smart Printing Certification: become a certified operator of Mutoh's Smart Printing Technologies.

AUTHORIZED DEALER ONLY TRAININGS

ValueJet Introduction and Installation: three day training geared towards the needs of new dealers and a Mutoh requirement for advanced classes.

Advanced Service Trainings for Solvent/Aqueous/Hybrid Specific Printers*: specific to ink type, this class provides practical hands on training of parts and troubleshooting. *Attendees of these classes are expected to know the basic functionality of the ValueJet printer line and have prior experience either using or installing ValueJets.

Print Head Maintenance: for technicians looking to relearn or fine tune head alignment skills.

Class sizes are limited and are fee based. For more information and to sign up for end user trainings visit <http://www.mutoh.com/company/events/> . For dealers inquiring about dealer specific trainings contact your Mutoh sales representative or log in to the reseller portion of www.mutoh.com.
