Package Prototyping Made Easy

The MUTOH VJ1627MH is an affordable hybrid printer that gives you the flexibility to design and print packaging prototypes and short runs on demand. Samples can be completed in minutes rather than weeks.

The standard removable flatbed table provides the versatility needed for the MUTOH VJ1627MH to print on both rigid and roll media making this the ultimate printer for multiple applications.

Perfect for labels, trade show graphics, POP displays, interior and exterior signage and much more!
